

Expression of Thanks

For the compilation of this book, it is very important to acknowledge Hajrah Siddiqui's contribution, because of her hard work involved in finding materials and providing various references to this collection. It would not be out of place if it is said that it was her efforts that this task could be accomplished. I thank her from the bottom of my heart.

I was also benefited from the library of the University of Anwar-ul-Quran, Gulshan-e-Iqbal-5 Karachi. I received great assistance from Mr. Muhammad Amin Noorani. I am very grateful to him as well.

Muddassira Siddiqui and Atique Waliullah Siddiqui also helped me a lot by working on the internet. The interest of both of them in this work is also commendable.

A review of the draft of this book was obtained from Dr. Moinuddin Aqeel, the Professor Department of Urdu, and the Director, Department of Translation and Compilation, University of Karachi. I also thank him for his useful suggestions.
