PROTOCOL REQUEST

It is not only our tradition but also obligatory that when we take the names of God, His Last Prophet, and Companions of the Last Prophet we use certain modus operandi for them.

This book is extended for many pages. There are several names, especially the names of the companions of the Last Prophet as the “Narrator of Hadiths”.

In order to avoid repetition of these protocols, we did not write these respectful names with proper conventions. You are requested to kindly read these names with due protocols as given below:
